The Friendly News...

Friends of the Lawrence County Public Library

The Friends of the Library met on September 9th, 2022.—in the midst of set-up for the fall book sale. Thalia Young conducted the meeting. Treasurer Dorothy Booth presented financial reports. The library director reported on supplies purchased by the friends for the summer reading program and new programs which are scheduled to begin in October.

The next meeting of the Friends group will be held November 18th at 9:30 a.m. All members and others interested in supporting the library are encouraged to attend.

For Your Information...

- Jason Shelton and others from Loretto Telecom presented a technology class for adults on November 8th. Those who attended learned a lot and look forward to the next class. Don't let that smart TV, iPhone or streaming service get the best of you. Check with a staff member for future class dates and subjects.
- Want to start a book discussion group of your own? Several book discussion kits are available from the library. Ask for a list of titles you can borrow for you and your friends to enjoy.
- Download the free Libby app and access ebooks, audiobooks, magazines and movies. The service is free—you just need your library card.
- Tennessee Electronic Library is the go-to source for everything from homework help to family history questions. Access it at <https://tntel.info>
- Have you heard about hoopla? Ask a staff member for details about this service which allows you to download up to 10 items per month free of charge with your library card. The latest in ebooks, audiobooks, movies, music and TV shows are available.
- Are you interested in learning more about your family history but don't know where to begin? Or have you done lots of research but have hit a brick wall? Join the Genealogy Group each Tuesday at one. You can learn the basics or share tips and information with each other. Access to Ancestry.com and other online resources are available in our Lawrence County Room.
