Calling All Quilt Lovers...

The library's quilt show is returning in 2024. If you have 1 or more quilts that you would like to display, please call the library at 931-762-4627 and get your name on the list. We will ask people to bring their quilts to the library on Monday, April 8th. We will set up on Tuesday and the show will be open to the public for the rest of the week. We are looking for both full-sized quilts, crib quilts and quilted wall hangings. There will be vintage quilts and new works of art. Further details will be announced on the library website and Facebook page and in the local media.

Both library locations will be closed
March 29th in observance of Good Friday.

Did You Know?

The library will host a solar eclipse program on Monday, April 8th. Drop by the Library Green Park anytime between 1:30 and 2:30 p.m.. We will have some activities for all ages, eclipse glasses, and a telescope so you can safely see the 92% coverage of the sun. (WEATHER PERMITTING)

Use your library card to download ebooks, e-audiobooks, magazines and more using the free Libby app.

You can also use your library card for access to hoopla. Set up an account and download 10 TV shows, movies, ebooks and e-audiobooks per month. It's another free service.

Remember to use the Tennessee Electronic Library for homework assistance, test preparation, learning a foreign language and more. <https://tntel.info/>

The Friendly News...

Friends of the Lawrence County Public Library

The Friends of the Lawrence County Public Library met on Friday, March 8th, at 9:30 a.m. Minutes of the January meeting and updated financial reports were reviewed.

The recent book sale was very successful. Proceeds were $4400. Thanks to all who helped with the sale. It takes many people to make this happen.

Members voted to set aside funds for upcoming program supplies. In addition to ongoing monthly programs, library staff members are making plans for the summer reading program. This year's theme is Adventure Begins at the Library. Funds were also allocated for books to be included in the Books for Babies packages given to newborns at the local hospital.

Friends members agreed to work during the upcoming quilt show. They will be contacted soon to choose shifts to work.

The next meeting of the Friends will be held on May 12th at 9:30 a.m.

Library Programs...

Library staff members offer programs for all age groups—toddlers through senior citizens. These include :

- Toddler Time each Thursday morning at 10;
- Coloring With Friends (for adults) March 27th, April 10th & 24th @ 1:30 p.m.
- Adult Crafters will meet on April 17th @ 1:30 p.m. Seating is limited, so you must preregister for this.
- Stitchin' Time Friday, April 12th at 12:30 p.m.
- No Pressure Book Group April 16th @ 6:00 p.m. Bring the book you are currently reading. Discuss recent reads with others who just enjoy talking about books.
- The Last Thursday Book Group April 25th @ noon.

Check the library Facebook page OR the library website for the latest information about programs.
