Lawrenceburg & Loretto

January / February 2022

Book Sale Scheduled

The Friends of the Lawrence County Public Library have scheduled a used book sale for February 19th—March 5th. There will be a large selection of books for adults and children, DVDs, audiobooks, and jigsaw puzzles. A variety of vintage books will also be available and we have a few games and craft kits. Every effort will be made to keep our volunteers and shoppers safe. Tables will be spaced further apart than usual, etc. If you have health concerns, we encourage you to wear a mask.

Donations for the sale may be dropped off at the library during business hours. If you have several items to bring in, please come in and ask staff members for help.

The library will be closed
February 21st in observance of President's Day.

This & That...

- There's a new face at the library. Holly Huntley joined the staff in late December. She is quickly learning all about the library and is eager to meet and assist our visitors. Please make her feel welcome in this new job.
- Think you can only check out books from the library with your library card? Think again! You can download ebooks, audiobooks, magazines and movies through READS. The Libby app is free. Prepare for ACTs and other exams with the Tennessee Electronic Library (TEL). Links to all of these resources can be found on the library website. That's at <https://www.lawcolibrary.org/>
- Barring unforeseen circumstances, the Last Thursday Book Group will meet on January 27th to discuss Cheaper by the Dozen by Frank Gilbreth. The selection for the February 24th discussion is The Remedy for Love by Bill Roorbach. All meetings begin at noon.
- Snoozers's Storytime Adventures- We have a new virtual story time which is posted on Facebook and our website every Monday morning. Produced by the same people who did CheckersLibraryTV, it also stars that cute vacuum cleaner robot named Snoozer. When you watch it on our website, lawcolibrary.org, you are connecting to the new YouTube channel that we are building. Be sure to tune in with your children or grandchildren! Stop by the library to pick up the activity sheets available with each episode.
- We Read Wednesdays - We enjoy reading stories on our other virtual story time, We Read Wednesdays. We record the readings ahead of time and post them for one week on Facebook every Wednesday. We would love to have you read a story for this program. Contact Marie at the library if you would like to read a story! 931-762-4627
- Dolly Parton's Imagination Library- Did you know that this program mailed out 1885 books to children in Lawrence County aged 0-5 years old in January alone? When you register your child they will send books to that child every month until they are 5 years old. Why not start your child's first personal library? We have registration forms at the front desk that we can submit for you or sign up online at GovernorsFoundation.org.
- The next meeting of the Friends of the Lawrence County Public Library will be held on March 11th at 9:30 a.m.
