New in Loretto

We are happy to see the repairs being made to the Loretto Branch Library so quickly. As you may know, a large limb fell and damaged the west side of the building. Unfortunately, the beautiful old tree was rotten and had to be removed. Plans are to plant a young oak tree to replace it soon.

The Friendly News...

Friends of the Lawrence County Public Library

Friends of the Library will meet at 9:30 a.m. on Friday, September 9th. The meeting will be held at the library. Members and others who are interested in supporting the library are urged to attend. Set-up for the book sale will begin immediately after the meeting. We need able-bodied people to help with the set-up.

Thanks to a cooperative effort with the Women's Center, each baby born at our local hospital receives a package from the Friends group. This Books for Babies project contains a booklet about the importance of reading to babies, complete with suggested titles. There is also an application for the Imagination Library and a book for the baby.

We hope to see you shopping at the used book sale!

Lawrenceburg native, Bobby Evers, recently entertained a large gathering of people at the library. He read from his books, Shoes & Cheese: the Boonetown Chronicles and Death & Ham: Life is a Real Trip. I highly recommend his books. If you missed this reading, you may hear a story at our Loretto Branch Library during the Oktoberfest celebration in October. We may also have him here again when the audio-book versions of his books are released.
