Lawrenceburg & Loretto

June 2022

Oceans of Possibilities at the Library

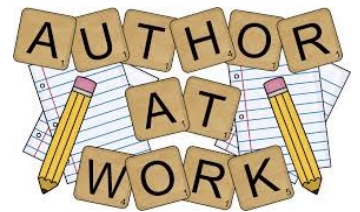

Registration is underway for our summer reading program. Programs of interest to students in grades K-3 will be held on Thursdays at 10 a.m. in Lawrenceburg and repeated at 1 p.m. at the Loretto Branch Library. Students will hear stories, play games and complete simple craft projects. They may earn a prize bag once a week by reading the required number of books for their grade level. Students in grades 4-6 may also earn a prize bag for reading. The first programs will be on June 9th. For details, register your child at either library location.

All offices of county government, including the library, will be closed on June 20th in observance of the Juneteenth holiday.

New Things at the Library

- Are you between the ages of 14 & 18? Looking for something interesting to do this summer? Join Anna at 4 p.m. on June 13th for the first meeting of the Teen Book & Writing Club. More details on page 3.

- hoopla! Use your library card to download movies, ebooks, audiobooks, magazines, music and more. This includes items not available through READS. This service is made possible with funds from the Gladish Family Charitable Trust. See page 4 for more information.

Please join us at the Lawrence County Library for our new Teen Book & Writing Club! We will have snacks and vote on which books to read at upcoming meetings. Meetings will be the second Monday of every month from 4:00-5:00 pm. We will read and discuss YA books, do creative writing prompts, and play book-themed games!

The Friendly News...

Friends of the Lawrence County Public Library

The Friends of the Library met on May 13th to discuss the latest activities at the library. Minutes of the March meeting and an up-to-date financial report were approved as presented. Thank you cards from staff members were shared with the group. These were for the National Library Workers Day gifts presented during National Library Week.

The library director shared plans for the upcoming summer reading program and the ongoing Books for Babies program. Members voted to make funds available for both of these efforts.

Dorothy gave a report about the weekly genealogy group meetings. They plan to resume documenting the gravesites of all Civil War soldiers in Lawrence County. The group meets each Tuesday at 1 p.m. Anyone interested in family research is encouraged to attend.

One of the services offered to our customers (thanks to the Friends group) is access to Ancestry.com—an online site used by family history researchers. If you are interested in searching for your family's history, use this resource when you visit either location of the library.

The next meeting of the Friends group will be on July 8th.

Lawrence County native, Paul Stewart, recently stopped by to donate copies of his biographical novel to the library. It is Truth: the Town...the People...The Transition. He told us the book was written after he and childhood friend, Cathey Harwell McClew, were reminiscing. Names were changed to protect the innocent, or guilty, as the case may be! Check out a copy and see how many people and situations you recognize.

For Your Information...

- The Last Thursday Book Group will meet on June 30th to discuss The Great Circle by Maggie Shipstead. People magazine says it is “The unforgettable story of a daredevil female aviator determined to chart her own course in life, at any cost: an “epic trip—through Prohibition and World War II, from Montana to London to present-day Hollywood—and you’ll relish every minute” Join us at noon.
- Want to start a book discussion group of your own? Several book discussion kits are available from the library. Ask for a list of titles you can borrow for you and your friends to enjoy.
- Download the free Libby app and access ebooks, audiobooks, magazines and movies. The service is free—you just need your library card. Can’t download apps? You can still access our digital collection at <http://reads.lib.overdrive.com/>
